Aareal Bank donates EUR 11,535 to the ZWERG NASE-Haus

ZWERG NASE e.V. provides some relief to families with handicapped and chronically-ill children / Aareal Bank has already been supporting this Wiesbaden facility for some years

Wiesbaden, 20 December 2010 – A donation of EUR 11,535 is Aareal Bank AG's support for the Wiesbaden ZWERG NASE e.V. facility. The sum is made up of the proceeds of events and donations in 2010 from the Bank's staff and Board. When the donations were handed over officially Sabine Schenk, Managing Director of the ZWERG NASE-Haus, and Jost Körte, 1st Chairman of the Friends of ZWERG NASE e. V. emphasised how important the ongoing support of partners such as Aareal Bank is for the sustainable continuation of such a facility. Dr Wolf Schumacher, Chairman of the Management Board at Aareal Bank said in explaining the multi-year sponsorship provided by the Bank: "The life-affirming, long-term work of ZWERG NASE is an exemplary commitment that we support with complete conviction."

The Wiesbaden project is a care facility that administers under one roof the care of 12 children on ventilators and short-term care for handicapped children. In 2010 alone almost 450 handicapped children spent vacation days or weeks in the ZWERG NASE-Haus, which took a strain off their families. The focus is not only on excursions, garden parties and games. The families know that their children are enjoying professional and therapeutic care and that they are in an environment specially adapted to the children's needs.
